

Coherence 2014 map. The conference is at the McCormick Auditorium on the 2nd floor of Norris Center, on the campus of Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois. Most attendees are staying at the Orrington Hotel (if mobility impaired, arrange for shuttle van transportation with the Orrington Hotel front desk the night before).

There are many restaurants in downtown Evanston (example smartphone apps include Yelp and Urban Spoon).

You can get to downtown Chicago using the suburban rail network (Metra, on the UP-N line to Chicago Ogilvie Transportation Center or OTC), or the Chicago Transit Authority urban rail network (CTA Purple line to Howard, then Red line to Chicago).
